

Crystal Test Oscillators

QEXfiles additional image for September/October 2016 QEX

Fred Brown, W6HPH

PO 73, Palomar Mountain, CA 92060: w6hph@yahoo.es

Use of a one inch meter leaves enough room to permit construction of both oscillators and the power supply on a 7.6 by 4.2 inch panel. Various crystal sockets can be wired in parallel to accommodate different types of crystals. The adapter to handle unusual types of crystals was made from a discarded FT-241 holder and pair of alligator clips. [Fred Brown, W6HPH photo.]